

SANDRA HIGGINS is launching a series of Private Receptions ‘to meet the artists’ she represents, which will be held every six weeks at her home/petite gallery in Kensington. The receptions are by invitation only and viewing by appointment.

The work of the Colombian/British artist OFELIA RODRIGUEZ, which began the series of receptions, was a great success and now is open to the public. Viewings by appointment.

If you are interested in joining our mailing list for further details about upcoming receptions please refer to my website and submit your details and the artist you may be interested in meeting:

<http://www.sandrahiggins.com/contact.php>

A Recent Review of the Museum of Visual Arts Retrospective Exhibition – Universidad Jorge Tadeo Lozano

“The works of Ofelia Rodriguez expose contemporary culture and identity through works which recall a life in London and Barranquilla. For the last 20 years, Ofelia Rodriguez has been painting from an East London studio overlooking grey council flats and haberdashers of Algate. As a Columbian artist, her work became well known in the U.K and across Europe with canvas paintings, drawings and mixed media boxes coveted by collectors of contemporary Latin American art.”

The City Paper, Bogota Colombia– A review by Maria Cristina Pignalosa, October 2011